A Chara,

In view of the geographic circumstances, the Boolteens-Inch branch of Fine Gael firmly believes that the Dingle Electoral Area, as it was in 2004 or in 2009 (2009 including Dromin DED), should be re-instated as a 3 seat local electoral area.

This would reduce the area of ground required to be serviced by Councillors whilst still being a relatively large area in it's own right.

Kind regards,

John Francis Foley
